

One-Point Perspective Letters

Drawing your name in 3D!

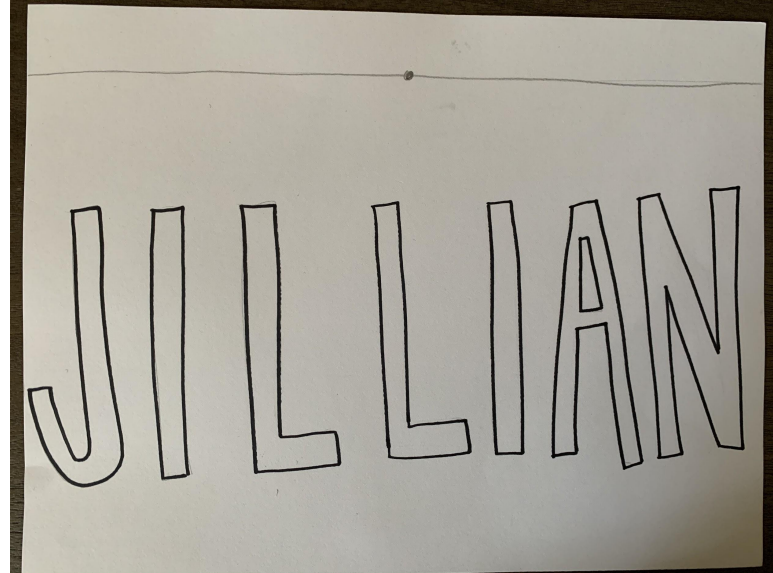

Setting up your drawing

1. Get a large piece of white paper or tape two smaller pieces of paper together
2. Draw a horizon line near the top of your paper
3. Add a vanishing point in the middle

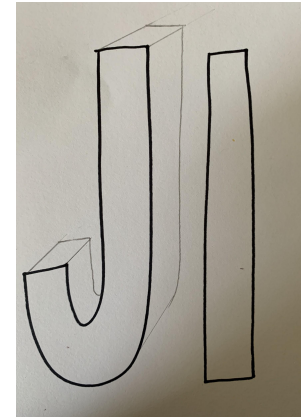

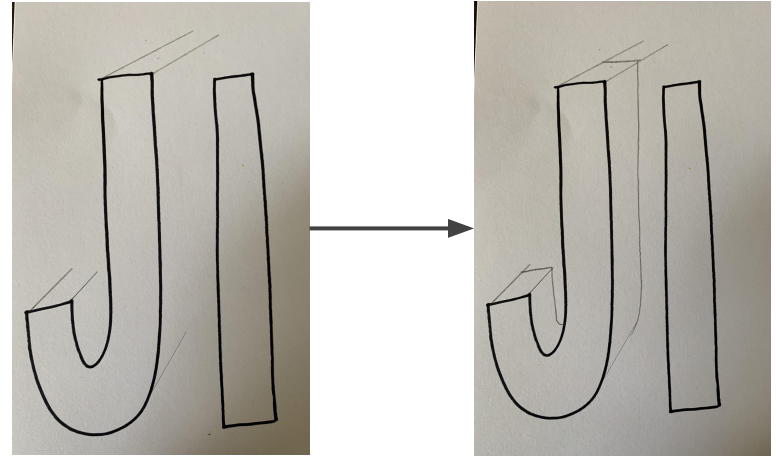

Add Your Name

1. Draw your first name in block letters
 - a. Your name can be in all caps or you can use small letters
2. Make sure you leave space between each letter
 - a. If you don't, you won't have enough room for the 3D element
3. If you have a long name, you can draw a nickname

Create 3D Letters

1. Connect the edges of your letters to your vanishing point using a ruler
2. Create parallel lines behind each section of your letter
3. Erase connecting lines
4. Do this ONE LETTER AT A TIME
5. If you need a review of how to create 3D letters with one-point perspective, go back and watch the video

Finalizing your letters and looking ahead

1. Go over your lines in sharpie, black marker, or dark pencil
2. Send me a photo at jrswinford1@cps.edu or through Class Dojo
3. SAVE THIS DRAWING!
4. We will be adding on to it next week, so keep it somewhere safe
5. Have a great week!
